

“A TEEPEE IN THE NEW YEAR”--WITH SUNDAY'S WORLD.

FLATTERY AHEAD.

April Fool Not In It in the Half Mile Handicap--Fast Time Made.

O'LEARY KEEPS UP THE WAR.

Heads or Tails by a Nose--Running Bird and Experience More Easily.

GUTTENBERG RACE TRACK, Dec. 31.--The weather was cold and raw, but a large crowd attended. The race was a half mile handicap, and as much enthusiasm was manifested as though every race was a suburban handicap. The track was in first-class condition. Indigo was served up as a red hot cinder in the opening event, and was backed to even money. He never showed a particle of speed, and his name to-morrow will appear in the "silly race."

The flush was red hot between Heads or Tails, the second choice, and Fancy colt, an outsider. They had it hammer and tongs through the stretch and finished heads apart. Eph, another outsider, ran away half a mile and then pulled back. Eph's quality is well-known, and it does not speak well for the caliber of the others when he could run away and then make close up.

Mabel Glenn was once more made favorite by her admirers, but she again disappointed them.

Time was when the followers of Andrew Thompson could put their checks on Mabel with the certainty of having them cashed after the race, but since she has displayed various quitting powers.

Hunting Bird, who defeated her a few days ago in a second effort and she repeated the victory.

Bob Sutherland, at 15 to 1, was second. Mabel Glenn was the favorite.

Jack O'Leary continued his bidding up war against owners who enter horses color their real value by holding up the winner $1,105.

The first quarter of the Mabel Glenn race was run in 23 seconds, which accounts for the fact that the race was a half mile handicap.

While the betting was going on in the third race, a man went around the ring, telling the bettors on Experience at 15 to 1, Fred Valdemar's name.

The Jockey Club President rushed into the ring, found the fellow and had him ejected from the track.

Experience won the quarter race by half a length from Prince Fortunatus, who beat a 10 to 1 outsider, Bullfinch, a head for the place.

Experience was entered for $300. O'Leary and a stranger hid him up to $2,200, at which price the owner bought the horse in.

FIRST RACE.
Purse $400, for maiden two-year-olds; six furlongs.
Starters: White, Indigo, Red, Blue, Green, Yellow, Orange, Purple, Brown, Grey, Black, White, Indigo, Red, Blue, Green, Yellow, Orange, Purple, Brown, Grey, Black.

White, Indigo, Red, Blue, Green, Yellow, Orange, Purple, Brown, Grey, Black, White, Indigo, Red, Blue, Green, Yellow, Orange, Purple, Brown, Grey, Black.

White, Indigo, Red, Blue, Green, Yellow, Orange, Purple, Brown, Grey, Black, White, Indigo, Red, Blue, Green, Yellow, Orange, Purple, Brown, Grey, Black.

White, Indigo, Red, Blue, Green, Yellow, Orange, Purple, Brown, Grey, Black, White, Indigo, Red, Blue, Green, Yellow, Orange, Purple, Brown, Grey, Black.

White, Indigo, Red, Blue, Green, Yellow, Orange, Purple, Brown, Grey, Black, White, Indigo, Red, Blue, Green, Yellow, Orange, Purple, Brown, Grey, Black.

White, Indigo, Red, Blue, Green, Yellow, Orange, Purple, Brown, Grey, Black, White, Indigo, Red, Blue, Green, Yellow, Orange, Purple, Brown, Grey, Black.

White, Indigo, Red, Blue, Green, Yellow, Orange, Purple, Brown, Grey, Black, White, Indigo, Red, Blue, Green, Yellow, Orange, Purple, Brown, Grey, Black.

HERE'S A BOMBSHELL.

School Board Officially Accused of Maladministration.

Seathing Report Filed by the Commissioners of Accounts.

Extravagance Also Charged Against the Charities Department.

Commissioners of Accounts Waite and Daly to-day made a report to Mayor Grant severely censuring the departments of charities and correction and of Education, practically charging maladministration.

The Commissioners say that for years the Board of Education have been asking for appropriations far in excess of the amounts they expected to expend, and that in some cases two or three years have elapsed from the time the appropriations were made to the date of their expenditure.

As instances of flagrant abuses of this kind they cite an appropriation of $5,000 made for the free lectures to workmen and women in 1889. Of this sum, they claim, only $501.93 was used for the purpose indicated.

In the same year $1,500 was appropriated for instructions in English to foreigners, and not a penny of this sum, they declare, was expended for that purpose.

Attention is called to the fact that the Board of Education maintains an expensive workshop on the plan of the fire department, but unlike that of the fire department no work is done in it.

This department is designated by the Commissioners a "satire incarnate." The whole year employed there is a foreman at $2,000 a year and a driver at $15 a week.

The Commissioners significantly call attention to the fact that the foreman, who has nothing to do, is the father of Charles F. Russell, of the Favorite Rice Company, which has a monopoly of supplying desks to the schools.

It is pointed out that in 1888 an appropriation of $4,350.00 was asked for and only $1,000.70 expended.

The Commissioners say: "If all of the large departments of our city were so far as the management of their money is concerned, conducted in a manner similar to the Board of Education, each annual budget would be unobtainable and largely increased."

There can be but one opinion as to the management of the money of the city. It can be annually for more money than it can spend, and prove it by relinquishing large amounts of the city property.

In regard to the department of charities and correction, the Commissioners report that pay patients at Bellevue Hospital are charged 50 cents, when it costs $1 a day to keep them in the hospital.

They find that the attendants at Ice-cream, Charlotte House and other delicacies, which are sold to the inmates, are largely untrained and uneducated.

They find that the inmates are deprived of substantial food.

They find that the inmates are deprived of substantial food.

They find that the inmates are deprived of substantial food.

They find that the inmates are deprived of substantial food.

They find that the inmates are deprived of substantial food.

They find that the inmates are deprived of substantial food.

They find that the inmates are deprived of substantial food.

They find that the inmates are deprived of substantial food.

They find that the inmates are deprived of substantial food.

They find that the inmates are deprived of substantial food.

They find that the inmates are deprived of substantial food.

They find that the inmates are deprived of substantial food.

FOR LOVE OF A WOMAN

Etta Harrington Attempts Suicide by Shooting Herself.

"Good-by, Tell Sadie She Has Killed Me," Her Message.

She is a Daughter of President John Haynes and Was Married.

There was no prettier young woman in Mount Vernon a few years ago than Etta Haynes, the daughter of John Haynes, then a citizen of the place and now President of the National and Mutual Building and Loan Association, of New York city.

Today she is lying in the Harlem Hospital suffering from a pistol shot wound in the left breast. She is a prisoner charged with attempted suicide. The wound may prove fatal.

She shot herself at midnight at the residence of her father, 18 West One Hundred and Thirty-third street. The wound was made by her attempt to kill herself.

The parents of the young woman openly charge that her life was ruined through her association with another woman.

The would-be suicide is thirty-two years of age. She was married to a man named Frank T. Harrington, traveling salesman for a wholesale liquor house in Hainsville, Ky.

Harrington took his wife South, but the climate did not agree with her and she left him. She returned to New York and has lived here ever since, while her husband remained South. Her health has been broken for several years.

Mr. Haynes, father of the young woman, lives in a well-appointed flat at 18 West One Hundred and Thirty-third street. He and his wife are broken-hearted over their daughter's fate.

According to their statements, previous to her marriage she was a very quiet and modest young woman of her own name named Sadie Carson.

"This woman," said Mr. Haynes this morning, "was the cause of my daughter trying to kill herself. Soon after they became acquainted, she began to show signs of being a different person, and was very dissipated. She lost all interest in her home affairs. The two were together constantly."

Mr. Haynes said that even after his daughter was married, she continued to be very dissipated. When Mrs. Harrington went South with her husband, Sadie Carson followed, and when Etta returned to New York, Miss Carson accompanied her.

This was three years ago. At the time Mr. Haynes lived in a small house at 18 West One Hundred and Thirty-third street. He and his wife were broken-hearted over their daughter's fate.

They lived there until a year ago last May, when the flat was burned out. Mrs. Harrington then moved to a new flat at 18 West One Hundred and Thirty-third street.

They lived there until last August, when Mr. Haynes said his daughter had nearly died. She was very dissipated and was very dissipated. She lost all interest in her home affairs. The two were together constantly."

Mr. Haynes said that even after his daughter was married, she continued to be very dissipated. When Mrs. Harrington went South with her husband, Sadie Carson followed, and when Etta returned to New York, Miss Carson accompanied her.

This was three years ago. At the time Mr. Haynes lived in a small house at 18 West One Hundred and Thirty-third street. He and his wife were broken-hearted over their daughter's fate.

They lived there until a year ago last May, when the flat was burned out. Mrs. Harrington then moved to a new flat at 18 West One Hundred and Thirty-third street.

They lived there until last August, when Mr. Haynes said his daughter had nearly died. She was very dissipated and was very dissipated. She lost all interest in her home affairs. The two were together constantly."

Mr. Haynes said that even after his daughter was married, she continued to be very dissipated. When Mrs. Harrington went South with her husband, Sadie Carson followed, and when Etta returned to New York, Miss Carson accompanied her.

This was three years ago. At the time Mr. Haynes lived in a small house at 18 West One Hundred and Thirty-third street. He and his wife were broken-hearted over their daughter's fate.

They lived there until a year ago last May, when the flat was burned out. Mrs. Harrington then moved to a new flat at 18 West One Hundred and Thirty-third street.

They lived there until last August, when Mr. Haynes said his daughter had nearly died. She was very dissipated and was very dissipated. She lost all interest in her home affairs. The two were together constantly."

Mr. Haynes said that even after his daughter was married, she continued to be very dissipated. When Mrs. Harrington went South with her husband, Sadie Carson followed, and when Etta returned to New York, Miss Carson accompanied her.

This was three years ago. At the time Mr. Haynes lived in a small house at 18 West One Hundred and Thirty-third street. He and his wife were broken-hearted over their daughter's fate.

They lived there until a year ago last May, when the flat was burned out. Mrs. Harrington then moved to a new flat at 18 West One Hundred and Thirty-third street.

TALK OF THE TURF.

Jockey Van Keuren Escapes Punishment Through a Vague Doubt.

MR. LEIGH MAY BE FINED.

A Merry War Is Imminent Between Owners on the Hill-top Track.

Jockey Van Keuren rode a queer race on Hill-top yesterday. He kept the horse in last place and was working that old time-worn trick of yanking the horse with one hand and whipping his boot furiously with the other. Every once in a while the horse would begin to show too much speed and his head would be twisted sideways. But, finished next to last, and Van Keuren, as soon as he dismounted, was informed that the Executive Committee desired the pleasure of his company for a quiet little social affair at the races were over.

There he was questioned by Judge Burke, and in response Van Keuren said that his head-twisting act was rendered necessary by the disposition displayed by Hill-top to jump on him. He was directly in front of him. There were times, however, when Hill-top was not near Hill-top, but Van Keuren could not explain his actions at those times. Judge Burke was far from satisfied with the riding of Van Keuren, and much less so by his explanation. There was a doubt, however, in the minds of the other members of the committee, and the boy was allowed to escape punishment.

Hill-top, to use the language of the ring, was a "watermelon ready to be cut." It became known about that a few days ago he had traveled a mile in 1.47, in company with Woodchopper. On this track he was plunged on in the city, his price dropping from 20 to 1 to 10 to 1. Whether or not the reports of this trial were true, it is certain that he was a "watermelon ready to be cut."

There was a "watermelon ready to be cut." It became known about that a few days ago he had traveled a mile in 1.47, in company with Woodchopper. On this track he was plunged on in the city, his price dropping from 20 to 1 to 10 to 1. Whether or not the reports of this trial were true, it is certain that he was a "watermelon ready to be cut."

There was a "watermelon ready to be cut." It became known about that a few days ago he had traveled a mile in 1.47, in company with Woodchopper. On this track he was plunged on in the city, his price dropping from 20 to 1 to 10 to 1. Whether or not the reports of this trial were true, it is certain that he was a "watermelon ready to be cut."

There was a "watermelon ready to be cut." It became known about that a few days ago he had traveled a mile in 1.47, in company with Woodchopper. On this track he was plunged on in the city, his price dropping from 20 to 1 to 10 to 1. Whether or not the reports of this trial were true, it is certain that he was a "watermelon ready to be cut."

There was a "watermelon ready to be cut." It became known about that a few days ago he had traveled a mile in 1.47, in company with Woodchopper. On this track he was plunged on in the city, his price dropping from 20 to 1 to 10 to 1. Whether or not the reports of this trial were true, it is certain that he was a "watermelon ready to be cut."

There was a "watermelon ready to be cut." It became known about that a few days ago he had traveled a mile in 1.47, in company with Woodchopper. On this track he was plunged on in the city, his price dropping from 20 to 1 to 10 to 1. Whether or not the reports of this trial were true, it is certain that he was a "watermelon ready to be cut."

There was a "watermelon ready to be cut." It became known about that a few days ago he had traveled a mile in 1.47, in company with Woodchopper. On this track he was plunged on in the city, his price dropping from 20 to 1 to 10 to 1. Whether or not the reports of this trial were true, it is certain that he was a "watermelon ready to be cut."

There was a "watermelon ready to be cut." It became known about that a few days ago he had traveled a mile in 1.47, in company with Woodchopper. On this track he was plunged on in the city, his price dropping from 20 to 1 to 10 to 1. Whether or not the reports of this trial were true, it is certain that he was a "watermelon ready to be cut."

There was a "watermelon ready to be cut." It became known about that a few days ago he had traveled a mile in 1.47, in company with Woodchopper. On this track he was plunged on in the city, his price dropping from 20 to 1 to 10 to 1. Whether or not the reports of this trial were true, it is certain that he was a "watermelon ready to be cut."

There was a "watermelon ready to be cut." It became known about that a few days ago he had traveled a mile in 1.47, in company with Woodchopper. On this track he was plunged on in the city, his price dropping from 20 to 1 to 10 to 1. Whether or not the reports of this trial were true, it is certain that he was a "watermelon ready to be cut."

There was a "watermelon ready to be cut." It became known about that a few days ago he had traveled a mile in 1.47, in company with Woodchopper. On this track he was plunged on in the city, his price dropping from 20 to 1 to 10 to 1. Whether or not the reports of this trial were true, it is certain that he was a "watermelon ready to be cut."

There was a "watermelon ready to be cut." It became known about that a few days ago he had traveled a mile in 1.47, in company with Woodchopper. On this track he was plunged on in the city, his price dropping from 20 to 1 to 10 to 1. Whether or not the reports of this trial were true, it is certain that he was a "watermelon ready to be cut."

There was a "watermelon ready to be cut." It became known about that a few days ago he had traveled a mile in 1.47, in company with Woodchopper. On this track he was plunged on in the city, his price dropping from 20 to 1 to 10 to 1. Whether or not the reports of this trial were true, it is certain that he was a "watermelon ready to be cut."

There was a "watermelon ready to be cut." It became known about that a few days ago he had traveled a mile in 1.47, in company with Woodchopper. On this track he was plunged on in the city, his price dropping from 20 to 1 to 10 to 1. Whether or not the reports of this trial were true, it is certain that he was a "watermelon ready to be cut."

There was a "watermelon ready to be cut." It became known about that a few days ago he had traveled a mile in 1.47, in company with Woodchopper. On this track he was plunged on in the city, his price dropping from 20 to 1 to 10 to 1. Whether or not the reports of this trial were true, it is certain that he was a "watermelon ready to be cut."

There was a "watermelon ready to be cut." It became known about that a few days ago he had traveled a mile in 1.47, in company with Woodchopper. On this track he was plunged on in the city, his price dropping from 20 to 1 to 10 to 1. Whether or not the reports of this trial were true, it is certain that he was a "watermelon ready to be cut."

There was a "watermelon ready to be cut." It became known about that a few days ago he had traveled a mile in 1.47, in company with Woodchopper. On this track he was plunged on in the city, his price dropping from 20 to 1 to 10 to 1. Whether or not the reports of this trial were true, it is certain that he was a "watermelon ready to be cut."

There was a "watermelon ready to be cut." It became known about that a few days ago he had traveled a mile in 1.47, in company with Woodchopper. On this track he was plunged on in the city, his price dropping from 20 to 1 to 10 to 1. Whether or not the reports of this trial were true, it is certain that he was a "watermelon ready to be cut."

There was a "watermelon ready to be cut." It became known about that a few days ago he had traveled a mile in 1.47, in company with Woodchopper. On this track he was plunged on in the city, his price dropping from 20 to 1 to 10 to 1. Whether or not the reports of this trial were true, it is certain that he was a "watermelon ready to be cut."

There was a "watermelon ready to be cut." It became known about that a few days ago he had traveled a mile in 1.47, in company with Woodchopper. On this track he was plunged on in the city, his price dropping from 20 to 1 to 10 to 1. Whether or not the reports of this trial were true, it is certain that he was a "watermelon ready to be cut."

There was a "watermelon ready to be cut." It became known about that a few days ago he had traveled a mile in 1.47, in company with Woodchopper. On this track he was plunged on in the city, his price dropping from 20 to 1 to 10 to 1. Whether or not the reports of this trial were true, it is certain that he was a "watermelon ready to be cut."

There was a "watermelon ready to be cut." It became known about that a few days ago he had traveled a mile in 1.47, in company with Woodchopper. On this track he was plunged on in the city, his price dropping from 20 to 1 to 10 to 1. Whether or not the reports of this trial were true, it is certain that he was a "watermelon ready to be cut."

93'S TAX $34,444,154

City Budget Completed by the Board of Estimate.

Brennan, $2,200,000; Annexed District, $350,472.

Full List of the Appropriations as Finally Passed.

The Board of Estimate and Apportionment this morning completed, approved and signed the final estimates for the city budget of 1893. The amount asked for in the Departmental estimates for next year was $30,000,000; the provisional estimate allowed, $27,750,000; general fund, was $33,771,000.32.

The State taxes which the city will have to pay this year are over $1,150,000 higher, and in order not to increase the city tax rate on that account the pruning knife was applied to Departmental estimates. The final apportionment is as follows:

Amounts as appropriated for 1892. Amounts as finally passed for 1893.

Objects and purposes of the city. Amounts as appropriated for 1892. Amounts as finally passed for 1893.

Objects and purposes of the city. Amounts as appropriated for 1892. Amounts as finally passed for 1893.

Objects and purposes of the city. Amounts as appropriated for 1892. Amounts as finally passed for 1893.

Objects and purposes of the city. Amounts as appropriated for 1892. Amounts as finally passed for 1893.

Objects and purposes of the city. Amounts as appropriated for 1892. Amounts as finally passed for 1893.

Objects and purposes of the city. Amounts as appropriated for 1892. Amounts as finally passed for 1893.

Objects and purposes of the city. Amounts as appropriated for 1892. Amounts as finally passed for 1893.

Objects and purposes of the city. Amounts as appropriated for 1892. Amounts as finally passed for 1893.

Objects and purposes of the city. Amounts as appropriated for 1892. Amounts as finally passed for 1893.

Objects and purposes of the city. Amounts as appropriated for 1892. Amounts as finally passed for 1893.

Objects and purposes of the city. Amounts as appropriated for 1892. Amounts as finally passed for 1893.

Objects and purposes of the city. Amounts as appropriated for 1892. Amounts as finally passed for 1893.

Objects and purposes of the city. Amounts as appropriated for 1892. Amounts as finally passed for 1893.

Objects and purposes of the city. Amounts as appropriated for 1892. Amounts as finally passed for 1893.

Objects and purposes of the city. Amounts as appropriated for 1892. Amounts as finally passed for 1893.

Objects and purposes of the city. Amounts as appropriated for 1892. Amounts as finally passed for 1893.

Objects and purposes of the city. Amounts as appropriated for 1892. Amounts as finally passed for 1893.

Objects and purposes of the city. Amounts as appropriated for 1892. Amounts as finally passed for 1893.

Objects and purposes of the city. Amounts as appropriated for 1892. Amounts as finally passed for 1893.

Objects and purposes of the city. Amounts as appropriated for 1892. Amounts as finally passed for 1893.

Objects and purposes of the city. Amounts as appropriated for 1892. Amounts as finally passed for 1893.

POLICE ON THE TRAIL.

They Expect Soon to Have the Murderer of Mrs. Ahrens.

David Hampton, a Negro, Is the Man They Suspect.

He Was Heard to Make Threats Against Her.

The police believe they are on the trail of the murderer of aged Mrs. Annette Ahrens, who was found yesterday afternoon with her throat cut from ear to ear lying on her bed at 424 West Fifty-fourth street.

A Mrs. Holmes, of West Fifty-fourth street, is authority for the statement that Mrs. Ahrens overheard a conversation between Hampton and his wife on the night of the robbery, and that she said "I would kill that old woman if she made any fuss about his having stolen her money."

Hampton's room was separated only by a thin partition from the room occupied by Mrs. Ahrens, and everything said in a modern study loud voice in his kitchen could be heard in the room of Mrs. Ahrens.

Besides, there is a glass door connecting these kitchens.

This door was always kept locked and a table stood in front of it on Mrs. Ahrens's side. A large sheet of yellow wrapping paper was hung over the glass part of the door, but a very small piece of this paper had been torn away, affording a good view from one room into the other.

It is possible that the murderer gained access to Mrs. Ahrens's room some days previous to the murder and tore out this piece of paper in order to enable him to watch the movements of Mrs. Ahrens.

Hampton was the only person, according to the story told by Mrs. Holmes, who had access to the kitchen of Mrs. Ahrens.

The latter's absence, the police think, the theory that he committed the murder is strengthened by the fact that he was seen in the kitchen of Mrs. Ahrens on the night of the murder.

Hampton was the only person, according to the story told by Mrs. Holmes, who had access to the kitchen of Mrs. Ahrens.

The latter's absence, the police think, the theory that he committed the murder is strengthened by the fact that he was seen in the kitchen of Mrs. Ahrens on the night of the murder.

Hampton was the only person, according to the story told by Mrs. Holmes, who had access to the kitchen of Mrs. Ahrens.

The latter's absence, the police think, the theory that he committed the murder is strengthened by the fact that he was seen in the kitchen of Mrs. Ahrens on the night of the murder.

Hampton was the only person, according to the story told by Mrs. Holmes, who had access to the kitchen of Mrs. Ahrens.

The latter's absence, the police think, the theory that he committed the murder is strengthened by the fact that he was seen in the kitchen of Mrs. Ahrens on the night of the murder.

Hampton was the only person, according to the story told by Mrs. Holmes, who had access to the kitchen of Mrs. Ahrens.

The latter's absence, the police think, the theory that he committed the murder is strengthened by the fact that he was seen in the kitchen of Mrs. Ahrens on the night of the murder.

Hampton was the only person, according to the story told by Mrs. Holmes, who had access to the kitchen of Mrs. Ahrens.

The latter's absence, the police think, the theory that he committed the murder is strengthened by the fact that he was seen in the kitchen of Mrs. Ahrens on the night of the murder.

Hampton was the only person, according to the story told by Mrs. Holmes, who had access to the kitchen of Mrs. Ahrens.

The latter's absence, the police think, the theory that he committed the murder is strengthened by the fact that he was seen in the kitchen of Mrs. Ahrens on the night of the murder.

Hampton was the only person, according to the story told by Mrs. Holmes, who had access to the kitchen of Mrs. Ahrens.

The latter's absence, the police think, the theory that he committed the murder is strengthened by the fact that he was seen in the kitchen of Mrs. Ahrens on the night of the murder.

Hampton was the only person, according to the story told by Mrs. Holmes, who had access to the kitchen of Mrs. Ahrens.

The latter's absence, the police think, the theory that he committed the murder is strengthened by the fact that he was seen in the kitchen of Mrs. Ahrens on the night of the murder.

EXTRA.

UMBRIA SAFE AT HER PIER.

The Big Cunarder's Passengers Landed in New York Without Mishap.

Assistance Was Refused Her by the Captain of the Gallia, of the Same Line.